

1. What's the difference between Wednesday/Thursday Night and our classes on Sundays?

2. Which ones should I be attending?

(I have gotten these questions a lot lately.)

Wednesday Night Youth Group

Wednesday Night's primary focus is Christian fellowship for Middle School (6th-8th grade) with a few High schoolers helping on that night. Games and lessons will be based with 6th thru 8th grade in mind. The program is designed for fun, fellowship, and a 20-30 lesson/prayer time and possible small group discussions.

Thursday Night Youth Group

Thursday Night's primary focus is Christian fellowship for High School only (9th-12th grade). Games and lessons will be based with 9th thru 12th grade in mind. This program is designed for fun, fellowship, and a 20-30 lesson/prayer time with possible small group discussions.

Roots Sunday Morning Classes

Sunday morning classes (Sunday School) have a primary focus for building your relationship with God through learning scripture and prayer time. Middle and High School are in separate classes with age-appropriate lessons/prayer time. Smaller emphasis on the game/activity and a deeper dive into prayer and Scripture lessons. The lesson runs around 45-50 minutes, and the game/activity/fellowship time is about 10-15 minutes.

While both programs deliver both Christian fellowship, time in the word, and in prayer, the midweek programs are more social and focus on Christian fellowship and Sundays will give you a deeper understanding of Scripture and prayer to build your relationship with God! Both are so important and many of our youth attend both days because they offer different things! I just wanted to clarify these differences as they are most definitely not the same. It just depends on what your main objective is and what you are hoping to get out of that day's gathering!
